- Senior Consultant role available
- Carve out your own career in the industry with the full support of the HillPDA team

About HillPDA:

HillPDA is an independent property consultancy firm providing expert advice to government, private corporations and institutions relating to planning, property economics, advisory and valuations.

HillPDA prides itself on the quality of its staff and the support it provides to advance your professional career and peer respect. HillPDA is seeking a consultant who is both ambitious and confident to advance their career by joining our Property Economics, Feasibility and Valuation team in Sydney.

HillPDA celebrates diversity and inclusion in our workplace. Our inclusive workplace recognises and appreciates differences in ability, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and gender identity to ensure HillPDA is representative of the community that we work for. We are proactive to include and welcome the unique contributions of all people. We embrace and celebrate the value of Indigenous people and their contribution to our communities.

About the role:

The role will involve:

- All facets of urban and property economics including market research, demand studies, feasibility modelling and valuation
- Understanding and evaluating the implications of demographics, planning controls, government decisions, and market forces on urban development projects
- Contributing to the ongoing growth of the company and its profile in Sydney
- Report and proposal writing
- Collaboration with multi-disciplinary teams for a wide range of private and public clients
- Metropolitan, regional and interstate project work.

To be successful in this role you will need:

- Minimum of 1 to 2 years consulting industry experience
- Excellent communication skills (both written and verbal) and a high attention to detail
- Strong IT skills - Excel (essential), GIS (beneficial) & Adobe Creative Suite (beneficial)
- Professional qualification(s) in Property Economics, Valuation, Planning or related studies in Property
- A sound knowledge of urban and/or property economics
- A willingness to learn, further your skills and be involved in a wide range of projects
- The ability to work autonomously to tight deadlines
- A commitment towards continued professional development.

For over 30 years, HillPDA consulting have been bridging the gap in knowledge between planning, development, and economic opportunities. www.hillpda.com

What we can provide in return:

- Provide you the support to develop your skills and promote yourself as an industry leading advisor
- Encourage you to participate in setting the future direction of the business
- Competitive salary package
- Sydney based office - Flexible work arrangement
- Ongoing training and professional development opportunities (study allowances, monthly training lunches, industry events).
